

Agenda Item A-1

5 February 1954

SUGGESTED SPECIFICATION OF EXPLOITATION SERVICES REQUIRED

A. Continuing

PROC

1. Accessions Lists or other means of initial notification to analyst of receipt of publication, insofar as not covered by Item 2, following.

MLRA

2. Translated tables of contents of specified periodicals.

AID
FDD?

3. Annotations for books, monographs, etc, (including scope, level of scholarship, estimated intelligence value, function with literature structure of country. evaluation of source)

MLRA
BR

4. Biographic information on authors, their institution affiliations, and institutes of origin of scientific and technical articles.

FDD

5. Science and technical news items, in abstract and extract form, or fully translated if short -- to include newspapers.

FDD-ATIC

6. Abstracting and extracting of clearly defined types of material. ATIC

FDD

7. Single source of information of translations in being and in process, both government and private.

FDD

8. Notification of disappearance of periodicals formerly regularly received and of new ones appearing. change in content or title

FDD

9. Full translation of coverage by Satellite and non-English abstract journals of Soviet periodicals not received regularly in the US.

B. Specifically Requested

1. Abstracts of articles.
2. Competent summaries, tables of contents, extracts, and full translations of articles, books and monographs, only following consultation insofar as practicable.
3. Special annotated bibliographies of primary source material on a given subject (purpose to show extent and nature of information available prior to initiating an extensive research project).
4. Systematic digests of widely dispersed foreign language publications dealing with specifically defined subjects.